- An unauthorized debit (with the exception of TEL entries) means an electronic funds transfer from a customer's account initiated by a person who was not authorized by the customer, via a writing that was either signed or similarly authenticated, to initiate the transfer.
- With respect to TEL entries, an unauthorized debit means an electronic funds transfer from a customer's account initiated by a person who was not authorized by the customer, via an oral authorization, to initiate the transfer.
- An electronic funds transfer in an amount greater than that authorized by the customer or that results in a debit to the customer's account earlier than that authorized by the customer also is an unauthorized debit.
- An unauthorized debit does not include an electronic funds transfer initiated with fraudulent intent by the customer or any person acting in concert with the customer.
- An improper debit means:
 a Re-presented Check Entry [RCK]
 a Point-of-Purchase Entry [POP], or an Accounts Receivable Entry [ARC]
 that meets the criteria described below.
